

2. Meeting on 5 July 1945. In development of the infiltration of the books, the only person was a more detailed version of CSOMOS. (Summarized below). HORVATH stated he had first met CSOMOS in 1941 in Budapest, had had frequent contact with him in 1944 in connection with resistance activities against the Germans, and knew of his contacts with Stephen L. Murray in 1945. HORVATH states that CSOMOS' involvement in the case is well certified, among others by Bela KURACH and by Capt. Vilmos KOSZAR, who was with both HORVATH and CSOMOS in the USSR.

a. Additional info on Miklos CSOMOS: In 1945-46 Arpad GORCZ and CSOMOS knew one another, they possibly worked together in World War II. GORCZ was a contact to the Germans. CSOMOS still has a wife and daughter in Budapest. CSOMOS hopes to exfiltrate. CSOMOS himself escaped narrowly in April or May. A lawyer friend (WU) warned him that the AVH had been to his house. CSOMOS was in the USSR with Olga SISKOVITS (DOB 17 July 1907, Miskolc), and still maintains contact with her in Vienna. Another close friend of his in Vienna, who was from his Horthyite contacts is old refugee Korhal TOBIAS, who has some connection with Caritas. SISKOVITS, TOBIAS, HERCSEKY, and Frau BUESS all know of the HORVATH-CSOMOS contact during HORVATH's July visit. Presumably only CSOMOS is aware of HORVATH's hope to use CSOMOS for contact with Hungary. CSOMOS is presently to HORVATH and Sandor KISS but is not a strong Party man.

Physical description: Miklos CSOMOS is five feet seven inches, about age 50, roundly built (180 pounds), with a round clean shaven face, and a full beard. (This description was obtained from HORVATH, at the time of his contact between Case Officer and CSOMOS was being discussed. CSOMOS still holds a bona fide note, written in CSOMOS' own hand.)
